Services? _____

Although all animals are temperament tested there is still a risk of potential aggressive behavior while socializing with other boarding animals. SSAH is not responsible for injuries occurred during the time of boarding. One of the advantages of boarding with SSAH is that veterinary attention is readily available if the need arises. If your pet becomes ill we will try to contact you to inform you of your pet's condition and recommended treatment. Payment of all fees is the responsibility of the owner and they are due upon discharge. Choosing the limit below will assure that your pet gets treated medically in an emergency until you can be reached. Please indicate the appropriate amount:

- Up to $100 Up to $500 Up to $_____
